OPENING

North Scott Press,
The the 1998
homecoming King and Queen are
David Cecil and Bridgette Davis.
The crowning was October 2 on the North Scott track after the homecoming parade.

Sincerely,
North Scott Lancers

Mary,
The homecoming parade was awesome. Too bad you had to work and couldn't be there. The weather was perfect for a Thursday October afternoon. All of the floats were good,
I really enjoyed the LP one and how it tied into the "Friend or Foe" theme. Talk to you real soon.
Your friend,
Meghan

Adam,

Thursday was a great day for an aud outdoors - sunny and 63°. Boy, the weather sure changed for the homecoming game against PV on Friday - rainy and cold.

Andy

SENIORS ROCK!

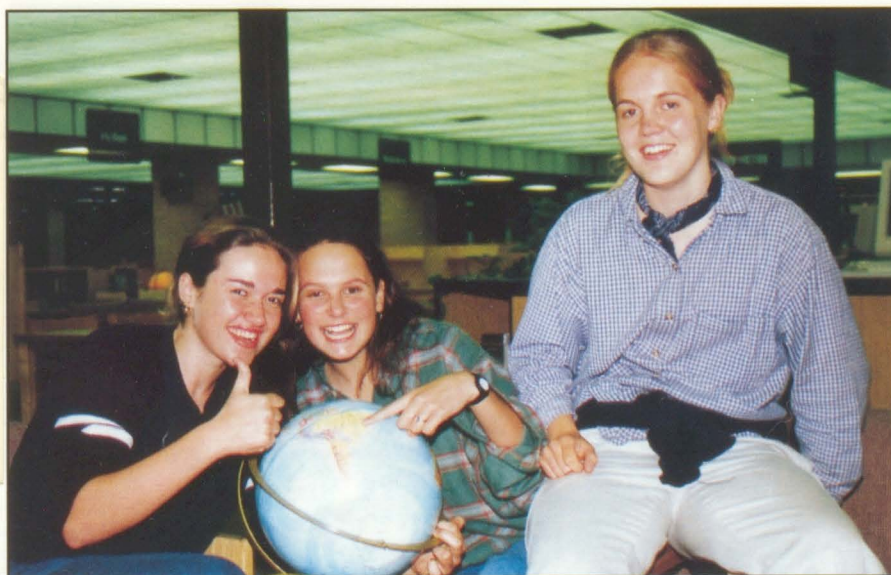

The seniors demolished the junior powder puffers. The new format for homecoming was really fun. This year a lot more people got involved. We had a great time at the Thursday night aud. We hope you can attend next year's homecoming festivities.

Bob

Nick,
I think the FRESHMEN showed great school spirit at the homecoming aud, but I think they should pay more attention to their schoolwork and improve their spelling. Gotta go.

Your friend,
Amy

Dear Mom and Dad,

Hey, Iowa is great. You wouldn't believe the number of cornfields and cows here. The students and staff at North Scott have been really nice. I am learning a lot about the American culture, but I can't wait to come home.

Love,
Fernanda

Ellen,

Thanks for bringing the hotdogs to the tailgating party at Sheridan Meadows before the soap game. Remember how the seniors dressed in towels, shower caps, robes, and housecoats at the game. It was a blast!

Love ya,

Jesse

Shawna,

Cheering at the homecoming football game was cold and rainy, yuck. I'm glad the miserable weather didn't stop us from winning. Remember how many layers of clothing we had on that night to keep warm? You are a great friend to cheer with.

Jamie

Steve G.,

Thanks for supplying breakfast today. You really know how to deliver the goods. You owe me the next time we stay awake all night hanging upside down on poles and playing Jenga.

Thanks man,

Pat

Dear Jenny,
I just got my pictures back from homecoming and I thought you would like this one for your scrap-book. It's too bad I couldn't dance on Friday night at the game, but you did a fantastic job cheering Thursday and Friday.

Go, Fight, Win!

Christa,
The music all year was fantastic. I thought you played out of sight!!

BAND ROCKS (and rolls)! You add so much to the game festivities and the entire atmosphere at Lancer Stadium. Bill Clinton would be proud of the saxophone section.

Tiffany

Dear Lancer Softball team,

It was so cool when you qualified for the state tournament. It was a great road trip to Fort Dodge (90 mph). The rain was rough but the 2-day 14 inning marathon game was well-done. We are looking forward to next year.

Jesse, Beth, and Nikki

POSTCARDS --

Friday of homecoming week was really neat. The student body dressed in red and gray. The senior football players gave their jerseys to the teacher who made an impact on their lives. It was a new activity and almost everyone liked the idea. Way to go teachers!

Joe

Nick and friends,

Friday nights at football games are really cool. The seniors like to dress up. For the first game they wore tie-dye clothes. It's a lot of fun to see the seniors dress up for games. Maybe someday we will even dress up.

Go Lancers!
Ann, Randy, Matt, Kathy

Rachel,
I had so much fun at the Homecoming dance. I showed this picture to my mom and she thought Nick was the D.J. He is too funny! You were definitely the "Lady in Red" October 3rd. I'll see you at cheerleading practice.

See ya sweets,
Heather

Chrissy,

Going to The Black Cow for ice cream Thursday night was fun. I like having a local ice cream shop around. I had a great week with the homecoming court. I'm going to miss everyone next year when we're at college. Christine

Greg,

Going to Clinton and dressing up in our water gear was a blast! We all got involved and showed our spirit. It was great! David and Bridgette really went all out. I still can't believe David ran the flag with a sprained ankle. I hope we keep our spirit up for the whole year. Your friend, Katie

Dear Emily,

Going to France last summer was so much fun. Do you remember all the stairs we had to climb to get to the top of Mt. St. Michel? That took forever! When I took this picture everyone was so tired, but we still had fun later that night. See you soon.

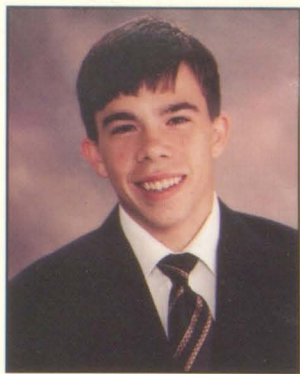

Love always,
Beth

ACADEMICS

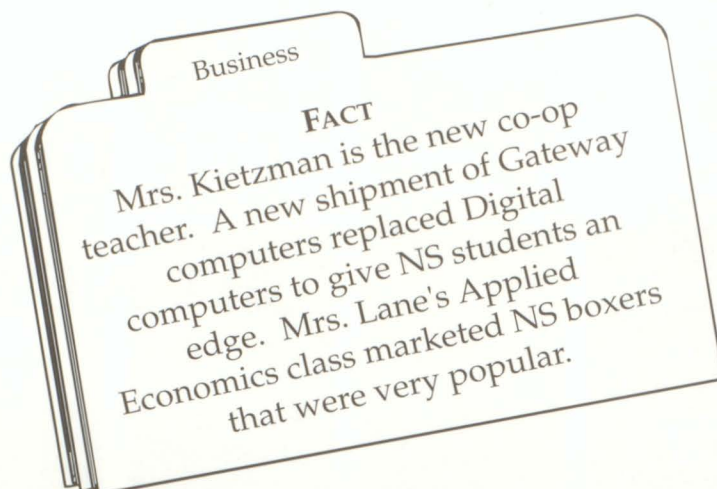

DELIVERING DEPARTMENT NOTES

Mrs. Berger, a fat-crayon professional, and Jesse Johnston discuss coloring techniques.

Special Education

FACT
A new self-contained B.D. program has been implemented this year to the special education department. Mr. Sodawasser is now more than a soccer coach for North Scott; he is a Crisis Interventionist for the department.

FACT
Mrs. Kietzman is the new co-op teacher. A new shipment of Gateway computers replaced Digital computers to give NS students an edge. Mrs. Lane's Applied Economics class marketed NS boxers that were very popular.

Mr. Hennigan's class fights to stay awake while reading.

Kevin Hulsén does some mental math.

Art

FACT
New Drawing II textbooks were purchased by the department. Ceramics classes now have a clay extruder, so they do not have to roll coils for their pots. The department added a new course in photography.

SORTING THROUGH ACADEMICS

Kelly Oster plots retaliation on all dump trucks.

English

FACT
There is a new curriculum for 9th and 10th grade students. They are reading the books Fallen Angels, Farewell to Manzanar, To Kill a Mockingbird, and Kaffir Boy.

Ben Anderson telepathically reads his book, "Fallen Angels."

Home Economics

FACT
New empathy belly simulation of pregnancy in Child Development classes gave students a chance to get an understanding for how pregnancy feels for an expectant mother. Generation 5 Baby Think It Over has given students a different outlook on parenting.

Jenny Weiderholt quickly hides the missing files.

Science

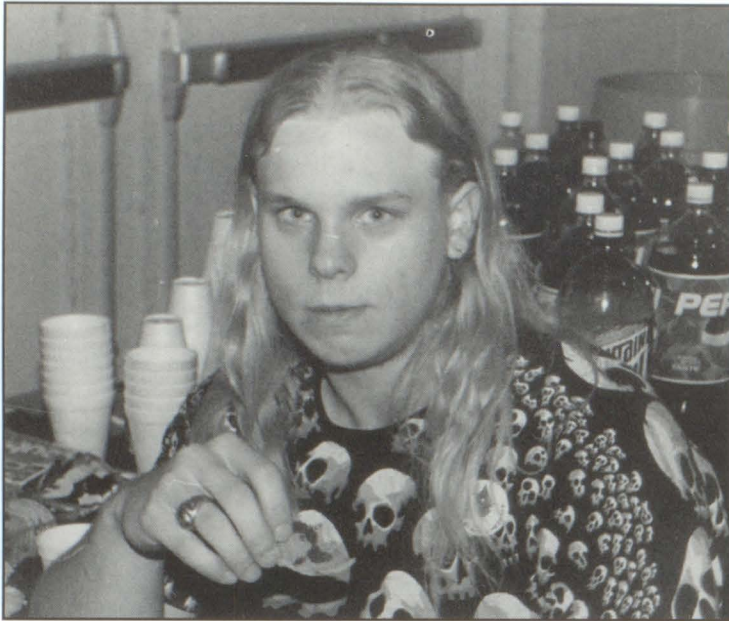

FACT
A new biology textbook and curriculum teaches general biology students how to associate science to their everyday lives. The program has more of an environmental approach to science learning.

ACADEMIC

FILES

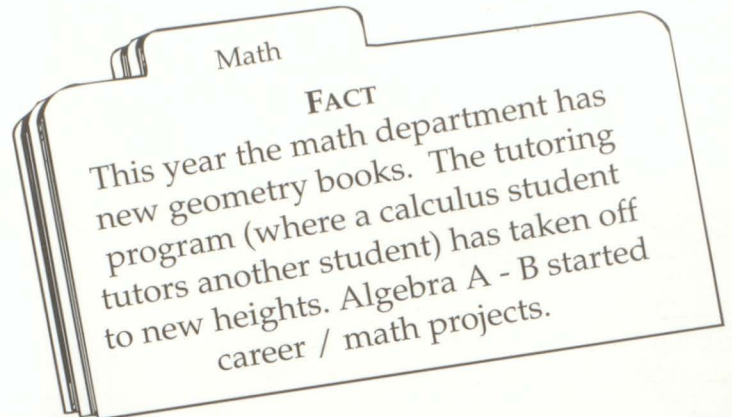

SORTING THROUGH ACADEMICS

Troy Luett takes a bite out of crime. (Or at least a cookie.)

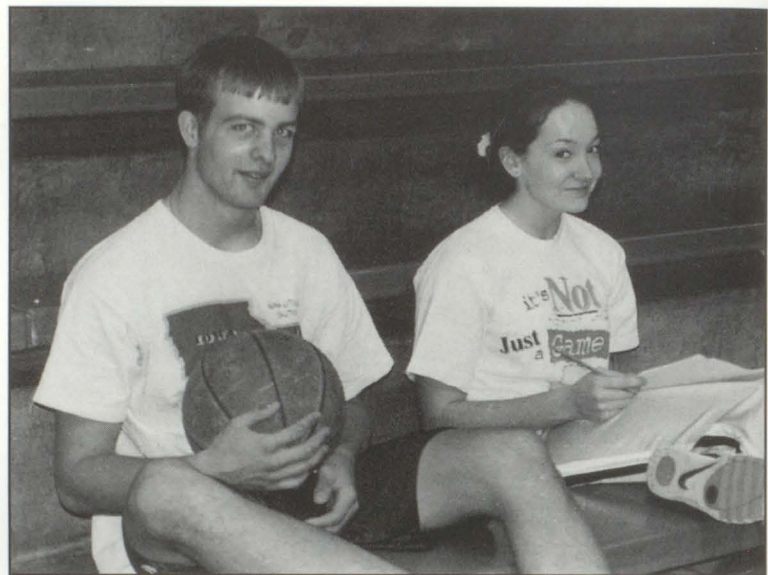

P.E.

FACT
Mr. Buttjer now officially teaches the strength and conditioning class that allows athletes and other interested students to lift weights and receive credit. Mr. Nevenhoven moved over to the P.E. department from Driver's Ed.

Math

FACT
This year the math department has new geometry books. The tutoring program (where a calculus student tutors another student) has taken off to new heights. Algebra A - B started career / math projects.

Adam Rochau and Laura Holst catch their breath in P.E. class.

Kim Arensdorf completes her geography assignment.

Social Studies

FACT
Mr. Klein has taken Mr. Barker's spot as the new teacher of Psychology and Sociology. The 1st semester theme of Vietnam: Friend or Foe was born in the social studies department and grew to engulf the entire school. Mr. Rheingans and Mr. Greenwood, a new teacher, taught the 1st ever Economics class.

ACADEMIC

FILES

ACADEMIC NEWS

Jerry Paulson considers applying for Free Math Knowledge.

Internet Technology

FACT
The math department offers 2 courses to students using the internet. Mrs. Hartman teaches both classes - Intro to HTML and Web Page. The students in Web Page design the web pages for the school as well as designing an individual web page.

<http://www.north-scott.k12.ia.us/hs/index.html>

Rachel Wentzloff designs a page for the newspaper.

Guidance

FACT
The guidance department welcomes Mrs. Nancy Hunt as their new secretary this year. Most of the counselor's time is spent assisting students and planning their class schedules. They set up a 4 year plan for freshmen and hold senior conferences in the spring of the student's junior year.

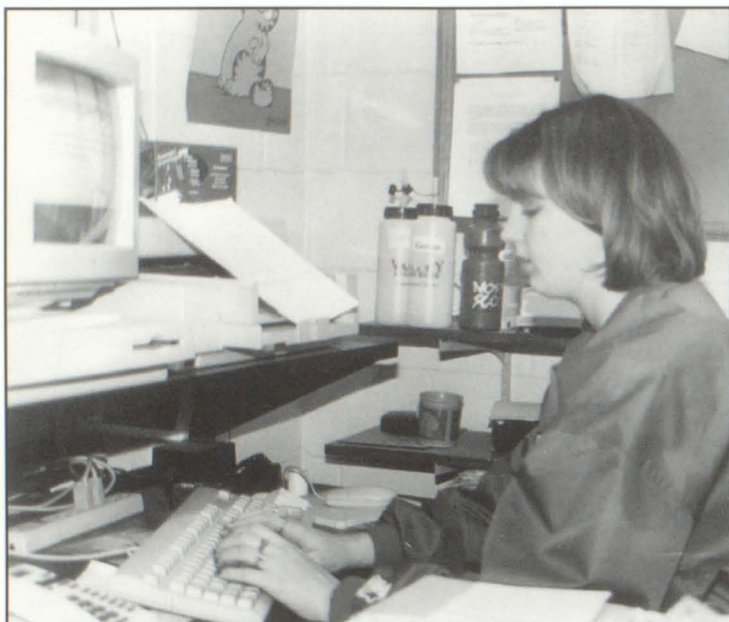

Somebody plays "Peek a Boo" with their Spanish book.

Media Center (Library)

FACT
New this year is an Internet lab with new Macintosh computers. There are 20 new computers for students to use. A Memorial Corner has been established with floor lamps and chairs - a place for relaxing and leisure reading. Placed in the MEMORIAL CORNER are 2 Isabelle Bloom figures and 2 paintings.

PRIORITY MAIL - ACADEMICS

Katie Kelly completes her Humanities paper.

Driver's Education

FACT
Driver's Education was taught by Mr. Hlubek. The class was offered by the AEA; it was offered only during the 1st semester. The students were charged $225 to enroll in the class. 31 students took the class 1st quarter; 27 students during the 2nd quarter.

FAVORITE CLASSESKristin Kashmarek:

"Notetaking with Mrs. Lane. She is easy to get along with."

Kevin Berg:

"The Lance because it is fun and it is a challenge. I am responsible for 1 page."

Adam Nolan:

"English because it is fun to crack jokes with my teacher."

Carrie Fossum:

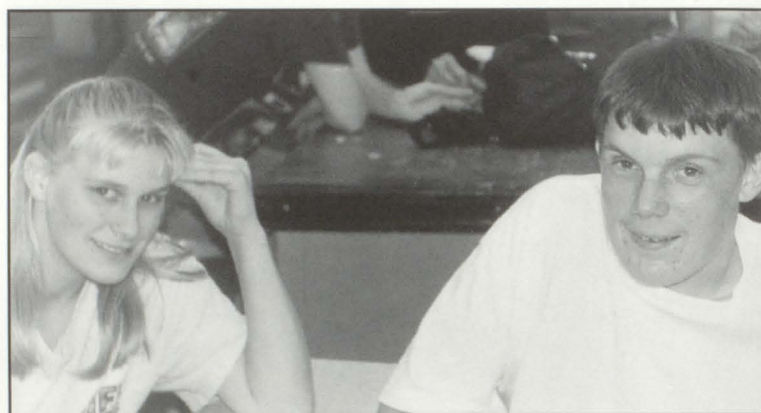

"Techtronics because the teacher is awesome - Mr. Dudley."

Chad Dirksen:

"Auto Maintanance because we got to mess around with Kory Thomas' car."

Mission Statement

The purpose of North Scott High School, a progressive educational community blending rural and metropolitan opportunities, is to empower students to become responsible, productive citizens in a changing global society by delivering multi-faceted learning experiences in a safe, well-maintained, and respectful environment.

Tammy Dirksen and Jason Edgren work together to complete an assignment.

Foreign Language

FACT
Mrs. Pearson was hired to teach French classes. The department bought new books for Spanish II. Last year Spanish I worked with new books. The two languages offered are Spanish and French. The emphasis is on vocabulary and communication skills. The students work in groups a lot.

Justin Hawker uses one of the twelve modules in the Techtronics lab.

Industrial Technology
FACT
The SCRA awarded the department with a $70,000 grant to purchase a Techtronics lab. The lab consists of 12 different modules. Some of the modules include digital photography, flight simulator, robotics, and graphic design. Mr. Perrine and Mr. Dudley instruct the classes.

Zach White looks up from his project in the wood shop.

Learning Center
FACT
Mrs. Soenksen is in charge of the learning center. The student must bring homework to class. Students work one on one with a teacher to organize notes, learn study skills and, if needed, the teacher will read to the student. The student receives help and completes her homework.

Casey Haas practices his lesson.

Teacher Helpers
FACT
This year 50 seniors participated in the teacher helper program. Teacher helper consumes 1 period of the student's day and consists of jobs like grading and recording papers, making copies, and other miscellaneous things. This class is only available to seniors.

SORTING THROUGH ACADEMICS

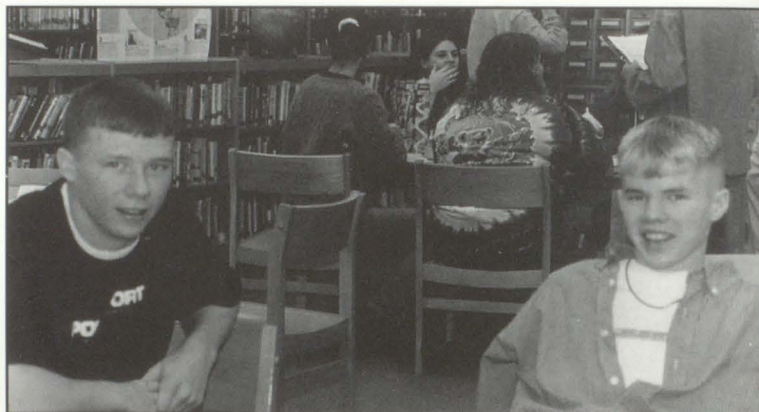

Eric Paxton and Brandon Swan make preparations for the egg drop experiment in science class.

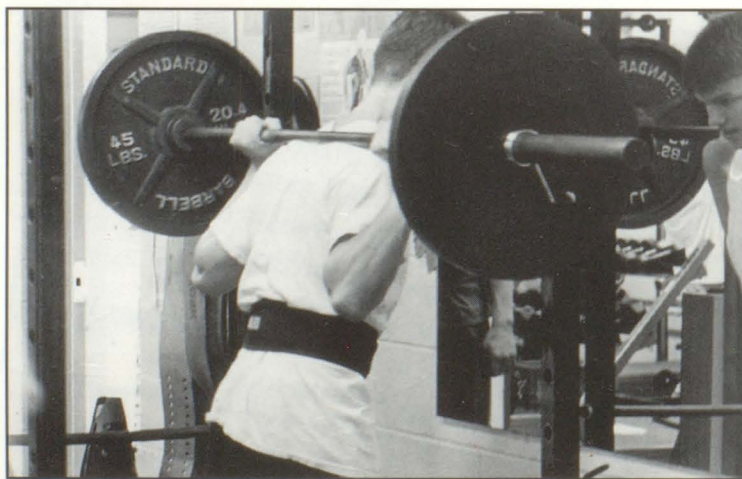

College Release

FACT

This year is the last year seniors can take college classes and not have to pay. Next year books and tuition will be at the expense of the student. Almost all of the classes are taken at Scott Community College. Some students have class at 8 a.m. while other students leave NS early for afternoon classes.

Kris Kuhlman and Mike Allison sit in the library discussing their upcoming social studies project.

Mike Wyers lifts weights during P.E. class.

Health

FACT

The health program was taken over this year by Mr. Dailey. Health I is a class required for all students to graduate. Health II is an elective for upperclassmen who want a more in-depth look on topics covered in Health I. This includes the emotional as well as physical issues pertaining to today's teenager.

CO - OP

FACT

Mrs. Kietzman took over the co-op program this year. Co-op is a work/school program for seniors. These students attend school for half a day and then they are released for work. Seventy-three seniors participated in co-op this year. The students are required to work 15 hours per week and they receive a grade from their employer.

Hola,

I really miss my friends in Spain, but I've made a lot of new ones here at North Scott. One day in Spanish class - my favorite class - I called an eraser a rubber. I was so embarrassed! I enjoy all of my classes but Mr. Hawley holds my interest the most. I had a run in with the librarian the other day during literature class. She wanted to know what I was up to. I am looking forward to coming home in June.

Dear Jason,

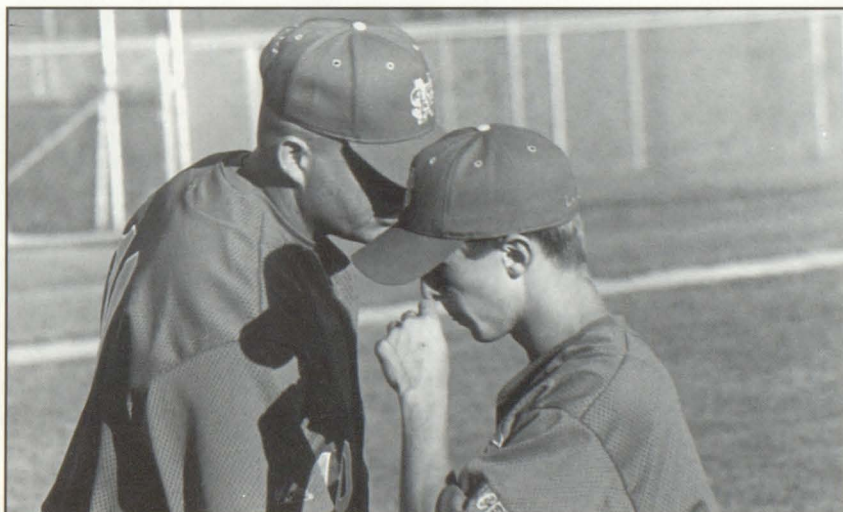

This year Coach Buttjer was named our new head coach. It took our season a while to get going because we had to get used to the new coaching style that Buttjer brought to the team. Once we got going though, we pulled our own weight and even had a triple play against West when we played there. The highlight of the season, however, was taking first place at the Lin Mar tournament. Looking forward to next season. - Erik

Dear Jim,

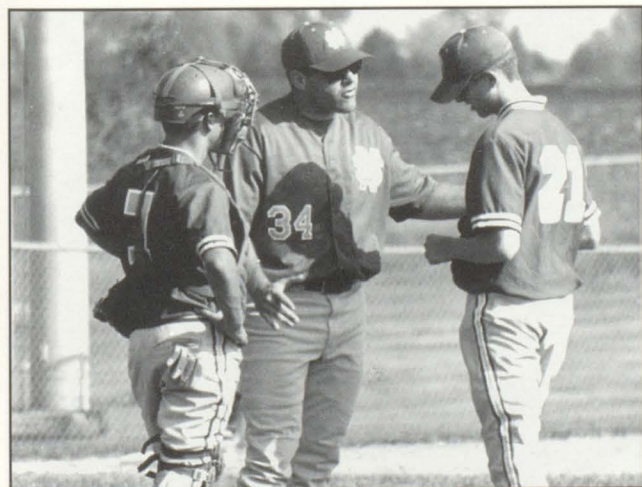

Once the freshman baseball season was all said and done, we didn't finish too badly. Since we only played 12 games, we didn't really get a chance to shine. I can't believe we actually had 8 games in a row cancelled due to rain. That stupid El Nino thing! There were a lot of incoming freshmen on the team and a lot of the actual freshman were moved up to play sophomores, so we did well with the players that we had. Overall, I'd say we did okay! I hope to see you soon!

Dear Nikki,

This has been one of the most memorable seasons of softball I have ever played. We had a great record of 48 and 6. The best part of the season though was all the practical jokes we played on Coach Johnson. Everyone got along well off the field which made the season even more worth while. We finally achieved our goal and went undefeated in districts to qualify for state. The first game in Ft. Dodge was against Sioux City Heelan. We beat them in a marathon 14 inning game that broke 5 records. It was the longest game in state history and we were victorious. Thanks for being such a good fan. See you soon. - Kelly
